My company Spirit Media Network and I have created an exciting new positive media movement and are revolutionizing the Media industry of tomorrow in the 21st Century. We have created a new international positive on-line media company that provides people of all ages with best in class television, radio, music and publishing that make a difference! In 2007 we received an international humanitarian award from "A United Journey from Humanity" for our work in promoting global celebrities, business leaders and humanitarians who are making a positive difference through one of our radio shows "International Artist Debut Radio". Please check out our incredible work and contribution to the betterment of society and business at: www.spiritmedianetwork.com, and always remember, YOU make the difference!

Warmest Regards,
